KELLOGG'S SHARP WARNING GIVEN MEXICO

TO CLARIFY AMERICAN AND MEXICAN DISPUTE

FIRST REACTION IN DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES HERE NOT SYMPATHETIC

STEPS TAKEN TO FORCE QUICK AND BETTER TERMS ON AMERICAN CLAIMS

(By United Press)
Washington, June 13.—President Coolidge and administration leaders were watching today to see whether Secretary Kellogg's sharp warning note to the Mexican government would hasten settlement of the American-Mexican dispute as intended, or be used to feed Anti-American sentiment below the Rio Grande.

Kellogg's purpose in putting a big question mark on continuance of friendly relations with Mexico is intended to be three-fold.

1. To force quicker and better terms on American claims for Mexican revolutionary and post-revolutionary damages, especially under operation of the alleged confiscatory clauses of the land law.

2. To discourage further American investment in that country for the present with the warning that more revolution is possible and this government may not support the Calles labor government as it supported the Obregon regime during the Huerta revolt of 1923.

3. To force President Calles to oppose the radical demands of his labor and agrarian party followers which this government considers a menace to American property rights and Mexican peace.

First reaction in diplomatic circles here are not sympathetic with Kellogg's action in warning a friendly nation through a press statement. Recent White House statements and interviews with American Ambassador Sheffield are quoted to show that there has been no disagreement over claims sufficient to justify such a strong and unusual statement by the secretary of state.

Recent speculation regarding the breaking of diplomatic relations which would commonly follow such a statement, the United Press learned today that such a step is not contemplated. Whatever may happen, this government is determined to keep its diplomatic agents in Mexico to guard American interests.

NEW MELLON PLAN OF TAX REDUCTION

CHAIRMAN SMOOT OF FINANCE
COMMITTEE OF SENATE
IN STATEMENT

TELLS UNITED PRESS PLAN MAY BE PUT THROUGH WINTER
SESSION

(By United Press)
Washington, June 13.—The administration has sufficient strength to put through its new Mellon plan of tax reduction in the coming winter session of congress, Chairman Smoot of the senate finance committee told the United Press today.

The 25 per cent surtax—part of the Mellon plan which was rejected by the 1924 congress—and other revisions desired by President Coolidge and his secretary of the senate finance committee told of success, Smoot says.

After checking over the new lineup of the senate and house which was swept in on the Coolidge election wave last November, Smoot has assured the president and Mellon that the new proposals will meet the approval of a majority.

"There has been an overwhelming change of sentiment," Smoot said. "Senators and congressmen are now convinced the country was strongly behind the old Mellon plan, and that the people are tired of dillydallying. There are many republicans and democrats who voted against the 25 per cent surtax last year who have now changed their minds."

"When the new plan is adopted in place of the present 40 per cent maximum surtax rate, business will be stimulated more by that than by anything the government could do."

(By United Press)
Criminal Court, Chicago, June 13.—William Shepherd on trial for the alleged murder of Billy McClintock, maintained a complete chemical laboratory in his home for many years, Anna Beckford, a former maid in the Shepherd home testified today.

"He kept 75 or 100 bottles of medicine locked up in a closet in his bedroom. He told me not to enter that room—it was secret," Miss Beckford told the jury.

"Once I went in by mistake and he was holding a bottle over a gas flame and laughing as the medicine bubbled. Once I caught cold and he gave me some medicine and I got deathly sick. I had to go to the hospital."

Through Miss Beckford's testimony State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe attempted to picture Shepherd in the role of an amateur chemist plotting to prepare a poison which would murder his millionaire ward. It was another link in his chain of circumstances by which he hoped to prove Shepherd guilty.

Billy's will giving $8,000 a year to Miss Isabelle Pope and the balance to Shepherd was then read to the jury as a matter of record.

Shepherd manifested particular interest in typhoid fever germs, Dr. Amante Rongetti testified.

The president's son is a student at Amherst, while Miss Trumbull attends Mount Holyoke college nearby.

APPOINTMENT OF SECRETARY
IS INITIAL ACT OF EXEC-UTIVE COUNCIL

St. Paul, June 13.—Minnesota's "big five," the new state executive council, held its first meeting and made its first appointment yesterday. The executive council is the supreme body of the state government under the reorganization plan effective July 1. It is composed of the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state treasurer and state auditor.

It has no authority at the present time. There is much preparatory work to be done by it, however.

The first appointment was that of William H. Lamson, Hinckley, as secretary of the council. His formal appointment will be confirmed July 1. Mr. Lamson's duties will include those of secretary of the state pardon board, of the state board of investment, state board of deposit and of several ex-officio boards to be abolished in their present form.

HUDSON BAY AS A SUMMER RESORT

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Minn., June 13.—Another summer resort has been added to the many already in existence in the United States and Canada.

The great Hudson Bay country which hitherto has been a closed book to most tourists on account of the long and tedious trip necessary to reach this nature wonder, has been brought nearer by completion of the railway to within 92 miles of the sea, and when it is completed Canada and the United States will have an inland seaport that brings them nearer the British ports by 1,000 miles.

As a new seaside resort it will quickly take its place in ranking with some of the most popular today.

The railway passes through a rich mining district, vast pulpwood forests and great undeveloped agricultural lands and through vast and glorious scenes of nature, thousands of lakes large and small rivers, where the hunter and fisherman will have opportunity to test their skill.

The announcement of the new opening of the new territory for tourists was made by the Ten Thousand Lakes Association here.

Lt. Col. R. H. Webb, mayor of Winnipeg, Man., is one of the active members of the working committee which has been responsible to a large degree for this great development.

Benefits of Massage

Without Massage

You all know the splendid benefits of expert facial massage. But do you also know that if improperly done, or too frequently, it tends to loosen the skin,

weaken the muscular foundation, produce wrinkles and wrinkles?

If more women only knew if all the good of massage, and none, with no harmful effect, may be had by applying a simple mixture of powdered talc and lemon juice, a smoothen of each.

This, instead of making the face flabby, does the very opposite. Its action is perfectly astounding. In your mirror

you see wrinkles, are lines and sagnesses literally "ironed out" in less than fifteen minutes! A beautifully rounded contour results and a youthful pink glow mounts the cheeks. You can obtain an original package of powdered talc from any druggist, enough to bring the cost of each treatment down to three cents or less! It's the greatest thing

yet discovered to make old-looking faces

young looking.

WEEK AT PARK

Exceptionally Fine Pictures Are Booked During Next Week

MEIGHAN IN "OLD HOME WEEK"

Johnny Hines in "The Crackerjack," Jackie Coogan in "The Boy of Flanders"

Beginning Sunday of this week the New Park is presenting what they consider to be the finest list of attractions ever booked for Brainerd during so short a period—one week. On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Thomas Meighan in "Old Home Week" will be presented. Of all the screen successes in which the leading male star has appeared there is no doubt that his latest comedy-drama is his best from an entertaining standpoint. "Old Home Week" is by far the funniest Thomas Meighan photoplay the New Park theatre has ever shown. It's a warm slice of real life, wholesome, humorous, and tremendously human. Every film fan from eight to eighty will enjoy its clean fun and sweet romance—the kind of picture the whole family should see.

Johnny Hines in "The Crackerjack" will be presented on Wednesday and Thursday. This is Johnny's latest and greatest triumph, said to be even better than his "Early Bird." Here are a few of the words that might describe Johnny Hines: active, speedy, peppy, fresh, bubbling, sparkling, cheery, merry, sunny, joyous, glad, brisk, airy, gay, vivacious, exhilarating, gleeful, blithe, mirthful, lively, animated, buoyant, jolly and a lot more you'll think of when you see him in "The Crackerjack," a picture no words can paint.

Jackie Coogan in "The Boy of Flanders" will be presented on Friday and Saturday. Jackie is back in rags, in which everybody loves him, in this picture. The story is based on the short story by Louise Small de La Rame (Ouida). In this picture Jackie has as his co-star his best pal—a great dane dog.

These pictures are to be shown at our regular prices.

CROPS NOT BADLY DAMAGED

ON a recent automobile tour from Brainerd to within 30 miles of the Iowa line, the crops seen appeared to be thriving and little storm damage was manifest. Of course, trees and barns have been toppled over in some sections, but the crops were undamaged.

Even where the biggest rains drenched the country, no drowned fields were seen. Thanks to good road drainage and to good farming practices, water drains off readily.

Potatoes in the truck gardens near St. Paul and Minneapolis are in excellent shape. Corn looks good. With the plentiful rains of late May and early June the meadows are luxuriant in their green and a bumper hay crop is assured.

The various windstorms have not been confined to any one section of the state. There has been quite a little damage done to barns, trees and telephone poles. Trees cannot be replaced and to lose one, especially in a section where they are scarce, is like losing an old friend. So far but few fatalities were recorded in the storm tolls.

In all these storms credit is due the maintenance men of the state highways. They are right on the job. A road which may have been made almost impassable by a night's storm, is quickly repaired in the morning so that travel can get through. Fallen trees are quickly removed, washouts repaired, dangerous places remaining quickly marked so as to give warning to any motorist to drive slowly at such a point.

Such is the recuperative power of nature and her sons, that a landscape storm sodden and drenched, may look as though the millails of the nether regions had been unloosed and next morning, the sun smiles, warm clouds drift along, the air is clear, moisture is evaporating, and the workers have joined with nature in again restoring all things to normal shape.

And what do you think they talked about most in Rochester? Was it of the storm of Wednesday that shook them up almost as much as in 1883 and was followed by another not quite so severe the next night? Nope, it wasn't storm damage they talked about. They pointed proudly to their hospitals and said that on Monday over 400 people had registered for the clinics.

And when you met a farmer on the roadside and surveyed his collapsed barn, what did the man near Osseo say? Not a word of discouragement, not a groan about his losses. All he said was, "Well, we do expect some good crops this season." And with good crops will quickly come the wherewithal to finance needed repairs, etc.

UNIQUE WEDDING SCENE

Mr. and Mrs. "Larry Ho" of St. Paul, well known in Brainerd, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on June 21 at their home, 1039 Van Slyke avenue. Mr. Hodgson is well known in Brainerd, where on two successive occasions he delivered the Elks' memorial address.

"Larry" is a silver-tongued orator as well as the wielder of a facile fountain pen and it will be a treat to listen to him when he replies to the felicitations of his friends. He spoke at our county fair some years ago and charmed the whole assemblage with his talk on community work.

The wedding ceremony of a quarter of a century ago will be reenacted with the same minister, Rev. M. Maradis officiating. Another unique feature will be the attendance of the "four little flower girls," who will be there grown up now with children of their own.

The dining room assistants who officiated at Hastings 25 years ago, will again do their part. Mrs. W. H. Pringle, of Hastings, who made the wedding cake 25 years ago, will also be present.

"Larry Ho" carries his years so well and the Missus is just as youthful as her husband, so that to many friends it comes as a surprise the years have rolled along so quickly that a silver wedding anniversary has dawned. In order to bring Larry's age in line we shall conclude they were married at 21 and 16.

HAROLD KALLAND'S ACHIEVEMENTS

HAROLD KALLAND, Brainerd boy, two years state champion in the trapshooting field, has occupied a commanding position in the world of clay targets. He will defend his title at the coming state tournament in St. Paul.

We take off our hat to Harold. Overcoming all kinds of handicaps, he has shown the nerve and courage which gained him titles. He is of a quiet and unassuming disposition, always praises the other fellow, never blames his gun or weather condition or the traps if he misses a bird.

Last year when Captain William H. Fawcett shot at a big tournament in the Carolinas, Kalland got so enthused that he came near taking the trusty flivver and driving to the Southland to compete with the best guns there.

Mr. Kalland is a moving spirit in the plan to have the Brainerd Gun club put on a trapshooting tournament one day of the Elks convention at Brainerd. Many Elks belong to the gun club fraternity and such an event would add much to the pleasures of the convention program.

FRATERNAL RELATIONS WITH CANADA

CANADA has always been regarded as a big brother of the U. S. A. and lately more than one hand of fellowship has been stretched across the boundary line. The recent visit of the mayor of Winnipeg in Minneapolis and his flying tour from Canada to the "States" was given much publicity and further cemented relations.

Many conventions are now even holding "adjourned" sessions in Canada, while many tours aim to make the "back trip" through Canada. We don't know how much the 4.4 percentage is contributing, but one thing is certain, a lot of Americans find time to transact business or otherwise in the land of our good neighbor to the north.

To Waterproof Shellac

A shellac finish on furniture or woodwork can be made fairly waterproof by the application of two or three coats of banana "oil." The last coat of shellac must be sand-papered as smooth as possible, and the liquid applied generously with a soft brush such as is used for varnish, says Popular Science Monthly. Each coat should be sand-papered lightly. Shellac treated in this way dries with a dull finish, but can be brightened by the application of furniture wax.

Color in the Household

Color has decided effect on the apparent size of a room. Light shades give an effect of space; also a distribution of colors will have this same effect; for example, a room with light walls and dark rugs and hangings will look larger than one done in dark color. Also a sense of space is created by using the same color on the walls of adjoining rooms.

Why He Escaped

The girl was interested in the yarns the fat old sailor was telling. He had just finished relating his experiences with cannibals, and she said: "And so the natives didn't harm you, after all?" "Bless you, no," was the reply. "They didn't have a saucepan my size."

CO-OPERATION

IS THE FIRST PRINCIPLE OF SUCCESS

CAPITAL

Greater industrial growth for Brainerd and Minnesota is ahead. The logical and only way to build up a community such as this, is to show your own faith in a definite, concrete and practical way. The dollar expended with HOME INDUSTRY eventually returns to the good citizen, who spent it. The dollar sent out of the community for commodities that could be purchased in Brainerd may never return; in fact it seldom does.

These firms and organizations are listed among Brainerd's most enterprising and reputable 'Future Builders'. Co-operate with them and increase the value of the community

TRADE UNIONISM IS WORKERS' NEED

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the binnacle of life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a hero in the strife!

—Longfellow.

THE handicraft age has been replaced by machinery, mass production, combinations of capitalists and absentee ownership.

The machinery age destroys the workers' power to bargain as an individual. To secure justice he must unite with his fellows—trade unionism is the result.

Trade unionism was not "invented" by one man or a group of men. It is a social need of workers.

Through collective action the workers raise living standards, foster education, uproot ignorance, shorten hours and lengthen life.

Trade unionism has been indorsed by every person who is awake to the spirit of the age.

Employers who have a voice in work conditions carry this intelligence and independence into every other activity of their lives.

Trade unionism is one of the nation's greatest factors in molding a higher citizenship.

The trade unions started every social betterment that the workers now enjoy.

They developed a public opinion for free education, the secret legislation, abolition of child labor, higher living standards, workmen's compensation, factory sanitation and protection of life and limb.

The trade unions are both constructive and militant. They propose remedies for every industrial and political wrong. Their success is in proportion to the intelligence and unity of wage workers.

LABOR AND THE RETAILER

THERE should exist the closest bond of sympathy and co-operation between organized labor and the average business man. By average business man we mean those hundreds and thousands of men working, like ourselves, with hands and brain, and depending upon profits rather than wages for their income.

This great army of business men serves society as distributors of commodities, such as the grocer, the baker, the clothier, the jeweler, the general merchant, the great bulk of their patronage is derived from the enormous mass of our citizenry who are the wage earners.

The organization of wage workers into units for the purpose of bettering their standard of living and increasing the amount of their wages, should appeal strongly to the intelligent retail business man, drawing the bulk of his trade from these workers, as a move benefiting him in the same proportion as it does the wage workers themselves.

The more the worker receives in wages the more the volume of the retailer's trade, the greater are his profits. It would naturally appear then that the retailers would encourage the efforts of the workers to better their conditions, if not for humanitarian reasons, then from the cold, selfish, practical reasons of better and bigger business and larger profits.

The iron-clad law of big business is: "Produce things the people need and want just as cheaply as possible, and sell them." He therefore is in the position of the unorganized wage

And the small man and the retailer need hold out no hope to himself that he will escape the operation of this law of big business, already he is in process of being reduced to the status of the worker, in that many of the articles he sells come to him in packages with the retail price stamped upon them. He therefore is in the position of the unorganized worker, having no voice in setting the price he pays for an article or the price at which he sells it. When this process is extended to all articles of merchandise, the middleman will then have become merely a cog in the distributing mechanism of big business and his profits will be restricted to mere subsistence as is the worker's wage.

The law of big business is that its accumulations from under-consumption of the workers must be re-invested. It is a simple matter of mathematics to determine just how long it will take a few of the big organizations of wealth in America to absorb every atom of property—down to the last corner grocery and the boot-black stand.

Today there is only one influence in America opposing that ultimate purpose and end. That is the Wage Worker.

THE COMPANY "UNION" IS AUTOCRACY IN NEW FORM

EMPLOYEES' representation," popularly known as the company "union," was first established in the United States in October, 1915, by a Colorado company following a 19-months' strike of coal miners to enforce union conditions and the mining laws of that state.

In its survey of this "employees' representation," the Russell Sage Foundation says:

"Under the Industrial Representation Plan the workers have neither an organization nor a treasury. Their representatives serve only on joint committees with equal number of company officials. They are thus deprived of their most potent means of defending their own interests."

"... The management offered the miners the Industrial Representation Plan. The employees had no voice in drafting it. This was done entirely by an expert, with the assistance of executive officials of the company."

Anti-union employers realize the value of the new system which is intended to supplant organization of labor and permit employers to retain control of workers.

The plausible and illusory defense of the company "union" is identical with the defense of the so-called "open" shop. When workers discovered the latter deception, the "American plan" was substituted. This, too, has been discredited. As each pretense failed to meet the worker's needs, the anti-union employer presented his autocratic theory in a new form. He now favors the company "union."

In its essence, the company "union" contains nothing new. Outwardly, it appears original, as did the so-called "open" shop and the "American plan." Fundamentally, each of these is the old deceit.

In every instance, the company "union" is an employers' proposal. Its source is the employer, who dictates its form and its operation. If the employer permitted employees to manage their own affairs, they would join the trade union movement.

The legitimate trade unions protest against this boss-manufactured and boss-controlled scheme, whose purpose is to confuse and divide the workers, to justify wage decreases and to check improved working conditions.

The trade unions provide for an orderly development of workers who are free from employers' persuasion and dictation. When workers are organized they acquire independence. They speak without fear of discharge.

The company "union" is a "front-office" affair. It contains no element of democracy.

ATTACKED and denounced as scarcely any other institution ever has been, the unions have thriven and grown in the face of opposition. This healthy vitality has been due to the fact that they were a genuine product of social needs—indispensable as a protest and a struggle against the abuses of industrial government.—John K. Ingram, LL. D.

TRADE UNIONISM IS WORKERS' NEED

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a hero in the strife!

—Longfellow.

THE handicraft age has been replaced by machinery, mass production, combinations of capitalists and absentee ownership.

The machinery age destroys the workers' power to bargain as an individual. To secure justice he must unite with his fellows—trade unionism is the result.

Trade unionism was not "invented" by one man or a group of men. It is a social need of workers.

Through collective action the workers raise living standards, foster education, uproot ignorance, shorten hours and lengthen life.

Trade unionism has been endorsed by every person who is awake to the spirit of the age.

Employees who have a voice in work conditions carry this intelligence and independence into every other activity of their lives.

Trade unionism is one of the nation's greatest factors in molding a higher citizenship.

The trade unions started every social betterment that the workers now enjoy.

They developed a public opinion for free education, the secret legislation, abolition of child labor, higher living standards, workmen's compensation, factory sanitation and protection of life and limb.

The trade unions are both constructive and militant. They propose remedies for every industrial and political wrong. Their success is in proportion to the intelligence and unity of wage workers.

Roads With Such a Factor Cannot Stand Very Heavy Rains

Roads generally throughout the county have been improved by the rains of the past week, announces County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy, who adds that those in the southern part of the county are not in as good condition as the northern highways, due to the fact that they pass through a clay country, while the northern routes are in more sandy territory.

Work was started this morning on the new road around the addition to Lum park, Ramon and O'Neill, of Benetville having the contract. This job is to be completed by July 1. The new road will be about one-half mile in length, and will be built due east from the bridge across the creek and then make a square turn north along the eastern border of the new addition to the park.

The state highway department gives out the following data concerning trunk highways passing through Brainerd:

T. H. No. 2—Duluth, Brainerd, Wadena, Detroit and Moorhead—285 miles—Good, except over fair section through Staples and on new construction to Wadena; paved from Duluth to Carlton.

T. H. No. 27—St. Cloud, Little Falls and Brainerd—66 miles—Paved from St. Cloud to Belle Prairie and good detour on to Brainerd.

RESERVE BANK

BUSINESS DURING MAY SHOWS
SEVENTEEN PER CENT
INCREASE

The money value of business transacted in the Ninth Federal Reserve District during May was 17 per cent greater, and the physical volume as reflected by carloadings was about 19 per cent greater, than in the same month a year ago. This increase was due to the higher prices prevailing for grains, livestock, butter, eggs and potatoes and to heavier shipments of ore, forest and linseed products and less-than-carload lots of merchandise.

As compared with a month ago, however, there was an unseasonal decline of 1 per cent in the money value of business transacted. This decline was partly due to the high levels reached in April. Recessions were shown in shipments of forest products, linseed products and flour, and in the shipments and prices of livestock. These recessions more than counterbalanced gains in grain receipts and grain prices and a quadrupling of iron ore shipments.

Nine cities out of the eighteen that report building permits to this office exhibited gains in the valuation of permits granted in May as compared with last year, but the total valuation for the eighteen cities was 5 per cent below last year. The extraordinary gains shown last month as compared with a year earlier could hardly be expected to continue in May. There was also a decline in both the number and total valuation of permits for these eighteen cities

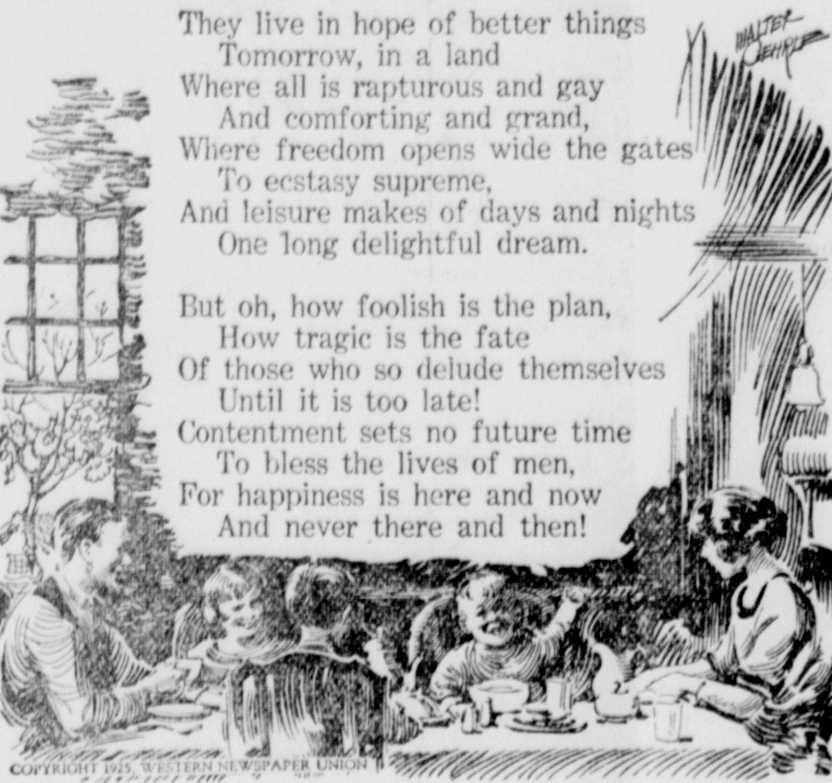

Here and Now

By O. Lawrence Hawthorne

I hear men talk so much about
Some great, uncertain day
When happiness at last will drive
Their miseries away,
When peace will shelter them from care
And fate will guide their feet
Along the endless paths of rest,
And joy will be complete.

They live in hope of better things
Tomorrow, in a land
Where all is rapturous and gay
And comforting and grand,
Where freedom opens wide the gates
To ecstasy supreme,
And leisure makes of days and nights
One long delightful dream.

But oh, how foolish is the plan,
How tragic is the fate
Of those who so delude themselves
Until it is too late!
Contentment sets no future time
To bless the lives of men,
For happiness is here and now
And never there and then!

pared with last year, but the total valuation for the eighteen cities was 5 per cent below last year. The extraordinary gains shown last month as compared with a year earlier could hardly be expected to continue in May. There was also a decline in both the number and total valuation of permits for these eighteen cities in May as compared with April. Housing facilities available in both Minneapolis and St. Paul are shown by current indexes to be much more plentiful relative to demand than was true a year ago.

Reports received from a number of selected city banks indicate that during May demand deposits increased and loans declined, resulting in a reduction of borrowings from this Federal Reserve Bank and increased in reserves and in holdings of securities.

YELLOWSTONE PARK
HAS NEW ATTRACTIONS
FOR 1925 TOURISTS

Yellowstone Park, June 13.—Mother Nature has some new tricks for the tourists of 1925. Travelers ask for something new each year. So far as the Yellowstone scene is concerned they are rarely disappointed. One year it is a new mud geyser, and an unexpected activity of mineral pools or surprising frequency in the park of moose or bear or antelope.

Rangers coming to Mammoth headquarters in the early springtime from their winter posts usually bring the first tidings of changes in this ever-changing park. This year the most remarkable phenomenon is the greatly increased activity on the Norris geyser basin. The Constant geyser, idle for two years, again is active. Near the famous Black Growler is a new steam vent, where great clouds of steam are expelling with a terrifying roar. Because of the presence of iron in the vicinity is colored red, so the new vent has been named Red Growler. Near the automobile highway in the same vicinity has appeared a beautiful new sulphur pool.

About four miles north of the Norris basin, the Roaring Mountain has extended its activity. The entire side of this mountain is punctured by countless steam vents; and, framed by the green forest, the steam display is of beauty.

BUSINESS DURING MAY SHOWS
INCREASE

The money value of business transacted in the Ninth Federal Reserve District during May was 17 per cent greater, and the physical volume as reflected by carloadings was about 19 per cent greater, than in the same month a year ago. This increase was due to the higher prices prevailing for grains, livestock, butter, eggs and potatoes and to heavier shipments of ore, forest and linseed products and less-than-carload lots of merchandise.

As compared with a month ago, however, there was an unseasonal decline of 1 per cent in the money value of business transacted. This decline was partly due to the high levels reached in April. Recessions were shown in shipments of forest products, linseed products and flour, and in the shipments and prices of livestock. These recessions more than counterbalanced gains in grain receipts and grain prices and a quadrupling of iron ore shipments.

Nine cities out of the eighteen that report building permits to this office exhibited gains in the valuation of permits granted in May as compared with last year, but the total valuation for the eighteen cities was 5 per cent below last year. The extraordinary gains shown last month as compared with a year earlier could hardly be expected to continue in May. There was also a decline in both the number and total valuation of permits for these eighteen cities

By O. Lawrence Hawthorne

I hear men talk so much about
Some great, uncertain day
When happiness at last will drive
Their miseries away,
When peace will shelter them from care
And fate will guide their feet
Along the endless paths of rest,
And joy will be complete.

They live in hope of better things
Tomorrow, in a land
Where all is rapturous and gay
And comforting and grand,
Where freedom opens wide the gates
To ecstasy supreme,
And leisure makes of days and nights
One long delightful dream.

But oh, how foolish is the plan,
How tragic is the fate
Of those who so delude themselves
Until it is too late!
Contentment sets no future time
To bless the lives of men,
For happiness is here and now
And never there and then!

The extraordinary gains shown last month as compared with a year earlier could hardly be expected to continue in May. YELLOWSTONE PARK
HAS NEW ATTRACTIONS
FOR 1925 TOURISTS

Yellowstone Park, June 13.—Mother Nature has some new tricks for the tourists of 1925. Travelers ask for something new each year. So far as the Yellowstone scene is concerned they are rarely disappointed. One year it is a new mud geyser, and an unexpected activity of mineral pools or surprising frequency in the park of moose or bear or antelope.

Rangers coming to Mammoth headquarters in the early springtime from their winter posts usually bring the first tidings of changes in this ever-changing park. This year the most remarkable phenomenon is the greatly increased activity on the Norris geyser basin. The Constant geyser, idle for two years, again is active. Near the famous Black Growler is a new steam vent, where great clouds of steam are expelling with a terrifying roar. Because of the presence of iron in the vicinity is colored red, so the new vent has been named Red Growler. Near the automobile highway in the same vicinity has appeared a beautiful new sulphur pool.

About four miles north of the Norris basin, the Roaring Mountain has extended its activity. The entire side of this mountain is punctured by countless steam vents; and, framed by the green forest, the steam display is of beauty.

Brainerd will observe Flag Day, June 14th, with appropriate exercises at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Gregory park, under the auspices of Brainerd Lodge, No. 615, B. P. O. Elks, assisted by the G. A. R., Spanish-American War Veterans, American Legion, Womens' Relief Corps, American Legion Auxiliary, Daughters of the American Revolution, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

The program which will be carried out at Gregory park is as follows:

1. Music, "Star Spangled Banner"—Brainerd City Band.
2. Introductory exercises—Exalted Ruler and officers.
3. Prayer—Chaplain R. R. Gould.
4. Music—Brainerd City Band.
5. History of the flag—J. J. Nolan.
6. Altar service—Officers of Elks Lodge.
7. Flag address—Hon. E. P. Scallion.
8. Music, "America"—Brainerd City Band and audience.

The Elks Flag Day ritual will be used, and the exercises will be conducted by Exalted Ruler Dr. A. K. Cohen, assisted by the officers of the Brainerd lodge and representatives of the other patriotic organizations participating.

In the second number on the program, the introductory exercises, the representatives of these organizations will give two-minute talks on the subject, "What the Flag Means To My Organization." These short talks are to be made by the following:

- Adjutant J. A. Wilson for the G. A. R.
- Rev. E. A. Cooke for the Spanish-American War Veterans.
- Commander George Sweet for the American Legion.

It was decided to hold the program in the afternoon, so that it would not interfere with the regular church services. The exercises will not be lengthy or tiresome, and are calculated to instill a greater love for the American flag and greater patriotism for the country over which it waves.

Alive and apparently little the worse for her experience, Miss Anna Bjella, 18-year old daughter of Tollef Bjella, of Hubbard county, was found Wednesday morning in the bottom of a 92-foot well on the abandoned property belonging to Andrew Johnson, who about 20 years ago conducted a logging camp three-quarters of a mile from her home where the young lady had started last Saturday night for a walk.

Tim Bjella, a cousin of the young lady's, went down into the well on lowered ropes, and they were drawn to the surface. Miss Bjella was examined by a physician from Bemidji, and the extent of her injuries found to consist of a black eye and swollen feet.—Pillager Herald.

HAROD KALLAND TO DEFEND HIS TITLE

DOUBLE CHAMPS FEW IN SPORT LINES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, June 13.—Gifts granted to few fortunates in the world of sport have placed Willie Hoppe, the billiard shark, in line for a new throne just after he had been forced to give up another one.

Hoppe, for years and years, was the champion balkline player of the world. His position was secure, his rivals were few and his genius was established. He had no real competition until Young Jake Schaeffer decided to settle down and play billiards. Schaeffer took the title away from Hoppe and Hoppe came back and defeated Schaeffer. Last winter Schaeffer again beat Hoppe and now holds the title.

Hoppe apparently went stale on the balkline game. He had had too much of it and it was getting his nerves. Realizing perhaps that he was through as a balkline player, Hoppe turned to the three-cushion game.

Last winter Hoppe defeated Bob Cannefax, the three-cushion champion, and in a return match recently Hoppe won again. They went to Chicago for a third match and Cannefax practically threw in the sponge when he drew a knife from his pocket and slashed the cloth on the table. He complained that the cloth was too slow for him and he took the drastic method of forcing Hoppe to agree to a new cloth. Hoppe refused to continue.

Hoppe is not the official three-cushion champion and will not be until he wins the title in the national tournament. Most everyone agrees, however, that he will win the title just as soon as he enters the championship tournament.

He was offered $10,000 recently by the owner of a billiard parlor to represent him in the National Three-Cushion League, but if he does enter he probably would want to represent his own club.

Balkline and three-cushion billiards are played along the same general lines and with the same equipment, so Hoppe's jumping from the championship of one to the championship of the other, might not be considered much of a feat. Court tennis, lawn tennis and squash are closely related, but in a concrete way they are foreign to each other. Few good balkline players can beat the best of three-cushion players and few three-cushion players are a success at the balkline game. Hoppe not only is a star at balkline and three-cushions, but there are many who feel sure he could win the championship at pocket billiards, formerly known as pool. His skill with the cue seems to be distributed equally at any game on the table.

Records show that there are few stars who switched from a success at one game and became a success at another one.

STATE CHAMPION

WILL COMPETE IN STATE SHOOT

TO BE HELD AT FORT SNELLING
ON JUNE 14, 15
AND 16

ART WHITE AND DR. ROY WILLIAMS TO ALSO ENTER SHOOT

The State Trapshooting championship meet will be held at Fort Snelling on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 14, 15 and 16. Harold Kalland, state champion for the last two years, will defend his title at the meet. Art White and Dr. Roy Williams will also enter the shoot from Brainerd.

About 100 trapshooters are expected to take part in the competition. In 1923 and again in 1924 the state meet was held at Breezy Point, with Harold Kalland of Brainerd carrying off the high honors both times.

In the special shoot held last Saturday and Sunday, Mr. Kalland was high over all in each of the three events. He won the single target competition with 240 out of a possible 250. In the doubles event, he was high with 59 out of 72. In the handicap, from the 23 yard line, he was again high man with 87 out of 100. As a prize for winning these events, he was awarded a beautiful $50 travelling bag.

PIRATES VICTIMS OF UNIQUE TRIPLE PLAY BY GIANTS

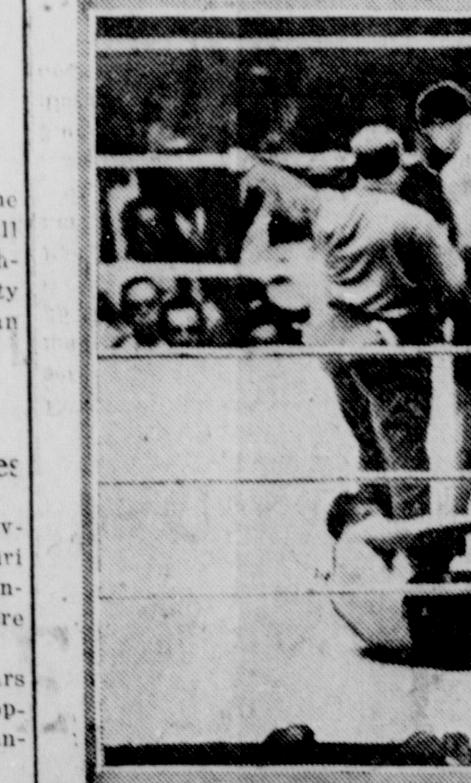

Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, June 13.—Twenty thousand fans saw the New York Giants stage a unique triple play in the first inning of their game with Pittsburgh yesterday due to headless base running on the part of the Pirates.

Jackson knocked down a smash by Cuyler, and Carey was run down between third base and the plate, Jackson to Gowdy to Groh. Rawlings had run down to third base and he was doubled up, Groh to Kelly. Meanwhile, Cuyler had rounded first base and the triple play was completed when he was run down, Kelly to Terry to Young to Terry.

Gene Tunney Knocks out Gibbons in 12th Round, Ending Veteran's Hope of Match with Dempsey

This photograph was taken as the referee was counting out Tom Gibbons in the twelfth round of his battle with Gene Tunney at the Polo Grounds, New York. This knockout, the first in Gibbons' long ring career, put him out of the running for a bout with Jack Dempsey for the world's championship. Tunney's body blows had weakened the St. Paul heavy, and he was dropped for the final count with a right to the chin.

TEAM TO TRY A COMEBACK

MEET STRONG NINE FROM VERNDALE HERE ON SUNDAY

LOCALS ARE NOW UNDER MANAGEMENT OF ED. WHITING

The Brainerd N. P. Baseball team will attempt a come-back on Sunday afternoon when they meet the strong aggregation from Verndale at the Koering grounds. On May 31st these two teams met at Verndale, the game resulting in a 13-2 score for the Verndale players. Brainerd played that game without the services of several of their players, who will return to the line-up for Sunday's game.

The local team is now under the management of Ed Whiting, who took over the managerial reins on Friday. Manager Whiting has been busy in the last day or two lining up some of the best local baseball players, and assures fans that the game Sunday will be interesting from a local standpoint.

Glen Jones will be the moundsman for Brainerd when the teams line up, with Emil Norman as his battery mate. Both of these men are well known to Brainerd fandom and require no further introduction.

In the infield, Louis Hanson will be at his regular position on the initial sack, Rudolph "Shorty" Uddenberg will guard the keystone bag, Lester Peterson in short field, and Ted Stallman at the hot corner, with Howard Thorkildson as utility. Such a lineup of promising young players will add plenty of thrills to the game.

The outer gardens will be tended by Russell McAlpine, who will cory in left field, Harold Ringer, playing in the middle garden and Louis Imgrund in right field.

Several of the men in the line-up have played in Brainerd teams and are well known to the people here. Hanson, Stallman and Imgrund are all old players with the Speedwells, several others have been active in league teams and other aggregations of recent years, and a few have had experience in other cities. Altogether, the newly-revamped team has taken on the aspects of a formidable foe, and will go into the game Sunday determined to bring to Brainerd fans the highest class of baseball seen here in years.

The game will start at 3 P. M.
